Position of Reserve Police Constable in the Police Department in the Ministry for Home Affairs, Security and Employment

Nomenclatures denoting the male gender include also the female gender.

1. The Commissioner of Police, Ministry for Home Affairs, Security and Employment invites applications for the position of Reserve Police Constable (RPC) in the Police Department, within the Ministry for Home Affairs, Security and Employment.

Duration of assignment and Conditions

2.1 A selected candidate will enter into a two (2) year assignment as a Reserve Police Constable in the Police Department, which may be renewed for following satisfactory performance. No renewal may be made beyond the age of seventy (70) years.

2.2 The position of Reserve Police Constable is subject to a probationary/trial period of six (6) months.

2.3 A Reserve Police Constable shall be obliged to work a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week according to the exigencies of the Police Department.

2.4 Vacation Leave would be pro-rata according to the number of hours worked.

2.5 Since this is a position de jure, a temporary one (and should remain so), the position of Reserve Police Constable constitutes an objective reason which falls under Regulation 7 (4) of Subsidiary Legislation 452.81 entitled "Contracts of Service for a Fixed Term Regulations".

2.6 The Public Service Commission can terminate at any time the contract of a Reserve Police Constable upon unsatisfactory performance or other issues.

2.7 Selected candidates must be of conduct which is appropriate to the post/position applied for. Prior to appointment, selected candidates from outside the Public Service must produce a Certificate of Conduct issued by the Criminal Records Office or other competent authority not earlier than six (6) months from the closing date of this call for applications, which should be submitted by the selected candidate within one (1) week from the date of the notification of appointment.

All applicants will be subjected to security clearance throughout the entire recruitment process.

2.8 In terms of the requirements emanating from Directive 16, regarding the "Governing Framework for Preventing and Managing Conflicts of Interest in the Public Administration", issued by the Principal Permanent Secretary on 27th November 2023 and which came into force on 1st February 2024, the Selection Board will assess candidates' previous employments to assess potential conflicts of interest. In this respect, candidates are to provide a completely updated CV, including qualifications and employment history with their application. Any potential conflict of interest matters noted will be reported to the respective Permanent Secretary, to ensure that should the candidate be recruited, such conflicts of interest would be appropriately managed.

Moreover, selected candidates are to report any known actual, potential or apparent conflicts of interest prior to accepting an appointment, through the prescribed Declaration available at Appendix 1 to Directive 16 (available here).

Salary pegged to the position

3.1 The Salary attached to the position of Reserve Police Constable is equivalent to pro rata of the maximum of Salary Scale 11 (equivalent to €26,290.00 in 2025), that is, €12.63 per hour of work.

3.2 A Reserve Police Constable will also, on a pro-rata basis, benefit from allowances emanating from the respective Sectoral Agreement.

3.3 The salary for the prospective Reserve Police Constable during the training period is a pro-rata of minimum

Salary Scale 16, which in the year 2025 is €16,915.00 per annum.
