Duties and responsibilities

It is the responsibility of a teacher to take charge of providing appropriate relevant, stimulating and engaging learning experiences for all students under his/her responsibility, nurturing wellbeing through sustainable individual as well as collective spiritual, emotional, cognitive and physical growth. The teacher is expected to collaborate with other educators, who may be supporting this endeavour within or beyond the classroom, under the leadership of the school's Senior Management Team, also by engaging in the development of a Community of Professional Educators, including through School Development Planning. In pursuing this, the Teacher is to:

- i. keep abreast of developments in education, particularly in relation to the respective Cycle and/or area, including but not limited to curriculum, pedagogy, assessment, recording and reporting of learning, content and diverse student development;
- ii. create optimal conditions which facilitate a student's holistic development according to guidelines provided by the national and local designated authorities;
- iii. plan, create, and evaluate stimulating, enjoyable and positive learning experiences, including through lesson preparation and delivery, development and administration of varied modalities of assessment for and of learning, as well as give feedback also through recording and reporting of learning;
- iv. address diversity by creating opportunities for all students to reach their potential without either formally or informally erecting barriers or lowering expectations;
- v. contribute towards the incremental attainment of the expected outcomes at subject, learning area, and cross-curricular theme level by all students entrusted under his/her care raising the bar of achievement for every individual and narrowing the attainment gaps that may exist in the process facilitating the fulfilment of each student's potential;
- vi. teach and educate students according to guidelines provided by the National Curriculum Framework under the overall guidance of the competent education authority;
- vii. teach and educate students according to the educational needs, abilities and attainment potential of individual students entrusted to his/her care by the Head of School or Head of Section;

- viii. undertake any other tasks, which the superior may delegate to him/her, as may be required; and
- ix. any other duties as directed by the Principal Permanent Secretary.
